Dear Parent/Carer,

Centenary of WW1

We are writing to you to ask if you could bring in all of your old plastic bottles. We need these for a project that school council is doing for poppy day. These are needed because it's exactly 100 years ago that the war ended and we're doing an extra special project for this special day. Usually we do something special however this project is extra important! We would like your support as in the end everyone will be able to see it. If you do bring in any bottles please take them to the office and drop them there, alternatively you could send them in with your child.

Yours sincerely

School Council
